

Public Foundation of Kansai Research Institute

Industry Innovation Office

RDMM

PROMOTION CENTER

The RDMM Promotion Center hosts the Keihanna R&D Innovation Consortium

Utilizing unique resources of the Keihanna Science City

Speeding up an early stage R&D with design thinking methods

Adjustment of Interests and IPs among corporation and organizations

Global human resource development

One stop services from R&D to commercialization

Adjustment of Interests and IPs

Speeding up an early stage R&D with design thinking methods

Creation of future business based on future market researches

RDMM Promotion Center

The innovation hub for collaboration among enterprises, universities, and public institutes

Providing technology education programs in cooperation with universities

Global human resources development

Utilizing unique resources in Keihanna Science City

Providing platforms for social experiments (e.g. Test drive)
Participation of the residents community "Club Keihanna" in R&D

Speeding up the innovations based on the needs of industry

The RDMM promotion center is a hub organization for open innovation and collaboration among various enterprises, universities, and public institutes.

The objective of the center is to speed up the creation of a smarter and more prosperous society through the development of new industries and communities.

RDMM stands for Research and Development for Monozukuri through Marketing.

Keihanna Plaza, Laboratory Bldg. 3F 1-7 Hikaridai, Seika-cho, Soraku-gun, Kyoto 619-0237, Japan

ACCESS

By train

- From Kintetsu Shin-Hosono St. & JR Hosono St.: 15 minutes by the bus to ATR
- From Kintetsu Keihanna Line Gakken-Nara-Tomigaoka St.: 10 minutes by the bus to Keihanna Plaza

By car

- 5 minutes by car from Seika-Gakken interchange of Keihanna Expressway

TEL: +81-774-95-5047(main)

Email: rdmm@kri.or.jp

www.kri.or.jp/rdmm/